

We were originally introduced to the Vande Hey Raleigh by the curb appeal of a roof on a beautiful Lake Michigan home. We thought it was a slate roof, but learned that it was a Vande Hey Raleigh roof. Shortly thereafter we attended the Milwaukee Home Show and met Erv Voster (a representative at Vande Hey Raleigh) who showed us tile samples and explained the manufacturing process, as well as, specific product information (durability, warranty etc.) The associates at Vande Hey Raleigh were extremely knowledgeable, helpful and courteous with questions and concerns we had before, during and after the building process. In addition, the service Vande Hey Raleigh provided was excellent.

Many believe it is slate. Everyone says that it is absolutely beautiful! It adds to the charm of this Old World inspired home
